(3) Country Members: Members over the age of eighteen years whose ordinary place of abode is more than 80 kilometres from the Club premises by the shortest route and who in the opinion of the Executive Committee are thereby deprived of the regular use of the Club's facilities.

(4) Associate Members: Members over the age of eighteen years who are entitled to exercise such of the privileges of the Club as may be provided by these rules.

(5) Reciprocal Members: Members of such other Sporting Clubs as Executive Committee may decide shall be admitted as Reciprocal Members provided that such members are financial members of and entitled to vote at a General Meeting of their Club (Reciprocal Association.)

(6) Junior Members: Members whose age is under eighteen years and who shall be entitled to exercise such to the privileges of the Club as may be provided by these rules.

(7) Honorary Members: Persons possessing the qualifications set out in paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 of these rules and elected in accordance with these rules.

Associate, Reciprocal, Honorary and Junior Members shall have all the privileges of a Senior Member except:- (i) they shall not be elected a Member of the Executive Committee nor hold any office in the Club except as a Member of a Sub-Committee appointed by the Executive Committee nor propose or second new Members of any type nor propose or second any candidate for Election to Office;" (ii) under no circumstances have the right to vote at any meetings of the Club; and (iii) those privileges which the Executive Committee resolves, from time to time, to be restrictive privileges available only to those persons then or thereafter, within the class (ie) of Membership entitled to those restricted privileges.

Reciprocal Members shall have those privileges, being no greater than those of Associate Member of the Club, as the Executive Committee shall agree in writing, with the executive of the Reciprocal Association upon resolving to admit the Members of that Reciprocal Association as Reciprocal Members of the Club.

6. ELECTION OF MEMBERS

A. SENIOR, COUNTRY, ASSOCIATE, RECIPROCAL AND JUNIOR MEMBERS.

(a) Candidates for Membership must be proposed by either a financial Senior Member, Life Member, or a financial Country Member of the Club and shall be seconded by any one of such members of the Club on the printed form supplied by the Club, on which shall be stated the full christian names and surname and address, the profession, occupation or status of the candidate.

The proposal shall be forwarded to the General Manager, who shall then cause the proposal form to be posted prominently on the Main Clubhouse Notice Board for not less than 14 days. At the expiration of such period the General Manager shall then submit the proposal to the next Meeting of the Executive Committee on a day to be notified. Candidates whose names have been so submitted may be accepted by vote by the Executive Committee, one dissenting voice in five of the members present to exclude.

- (b) The Executive Committee may appoint a Sub-Committee, the members of which shall include not less than one Executive Committee member to make any further enquiries and report to the Executive Committee with respect to any candidates.

B. LIFE MEMBERS

- (a) The Executive Committee may recommend for Life Membership any member who has rendered special services to the Club in the opinion of the Executive Committee (subject to paragraph 5(b) of the Constitution).
- (b) Without notice any member of the Executive Committee may move at the General Meeting of the Club next following such recommendation that such member be appointed a Life Member and if such motion be seconded and carried such member shall forthwith become a Life Member. The motion shall be put to the General Meeting as an ordinary resolution and be determined by a secret ballot of those present and entitled to vote.

C. HONORARY MEMBERS

- (a) Honorary Members possessing the qualifications set out in paragraph 7 hereunder may be elected by any two Members of the Executive Committee who shall not be the proposer or seconder subject to the following conditions:-
 - i The proposal is in writing signed by a Senior Member of the Club in a form setting out that such person is to the knowledge of the proposer eligible according to the Rules of the Club to be elected as Honorary Member.
 - ii Notice is posted on the Club premises by the General Manager thereof, the date of such posting being marked thereon.
 - iii The person proposed as an Honorary Member is duly elected according to the Rules of the Club herein detailed, and
 - iv The candidate has been advised of such selection.
- b) Provided that no person shall be an Honorary Member for a period of longer than one month in any financial year except Honorary members possessing the qualifications set out hereunder in paragraph 8 or 9 who may be elected at the discretion of the Executive Committee for a period not exceeding twelve months. No person shall be eligible for election as an Honorary Member if:-
 - i Their usual place of residence is less than 30 kilometres from the Club premises by the shortest route, save and except the persons referred to hereunder in paragraph 8 or 9 of the Rules of this Constitution.

- ii They have been offered Honorary Membership of the Club during the period of three months immediately preceding the date of their nomination except those persons elected by the Executive Committee with qualifications set out hereunder in the second part of paragraph 8 or 9 hereof.
- iii They are under 18 years of age.

7. QUALIFICATIONS FOR HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

- (d) The offices of Senior Officers of any State Government Department and Local Authorities.

The Executive Committee shall have power in cases appearing to them to require it, to revoke the membership of any Honorary Member without notice or right of appeal.

9. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

An Associate Member shall be any member who is over the age of eighteen years and who is not a Reciprocal, Senior, Honorary or Life Member of the Club. An Associate Member may attend any General Meeting of the Club but shall not be eligible to vote and shall not be eligible to be elected an Officer of the Club, nor occupy a pen or club mooring.

10. JUNIOR TO SENIOR MEMBERS

Junior Members will be transferred to Senior Membership on the date of their 18th birthday. A Junior Member shall pay a Subscription equal to that of a Senior Member (with such rebate as the Executive Committee may determine) in the Membership year in which he/she attains that age but no additional Entrance Fee is payable on transfer of Membership and the privileges of Senior Membership shall apply only from the date of transfer of Membership.

11. ENTRANCE FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

The members shall pay such entrance fees and subscriptions to the Club as shall from time to time be provided in the Rules of the Club. The Executive Committee has the power to reduce any entrance fee or subscription.

- (a) Members engaged in educational courses or vocational training, precluding them from earning a regular income, shall upon application duly approved by the Executive Committee, pay Subscription at half the annual subscription rate for the period so engaged.
- (b) Members whose continuous Club membership exceeds ten years receiving aged or invalid pensions payable by the Social Services Department and old age or permanently unemployed pensions, payable by the Department of Veteran Affairs, upon application duly approved by the Executive Committee shall pay a subscription of one-quarter of the usual subscription, for the period so engaged.
- (c) Any Member who has completed twenty consecutive years of Senior Membership, on attaining 65 years of age, shall upon application duly approved by the Executive Committee pay a Subscription of one quarter of the usual Subscription for a Senior Member.

12. METHOD OF PAYMENT

- (a) The entrance fee and first subscription shall be paid when the nomination is lodged with the General Manager, and all future subscriptions shall be due and payable prior to the 1st July in each and every year.
- (b) The first subscription for all members with the exception of reciprocal members shall be calculated on the following basis:-
 - i) Applications received in July to September – 100% of the annual subscription.
 - ii) Applications received in October to December – 75% of the annual subscription.
 - iii) Applications received in January to March – 50% of the annual subscription.
 - iv) Applications received in April to June – 25% of the annual subscriptions.

The first subscription for reciprocal members shall be 100% of the annual subscriptions.

13. COMMENCEMENT AND CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (a) A person shall commence to be a member of the Club upon notification of acceptance by the Executive Committee and on payment of any associated fees.
- (b) A member shall cease to be a member of the Club:-
 - (1) On written resignation, death, being an enemy alien in time of war, or on ceasing to owe allegiance to the Crown or, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, on conviction for any indictable criminal offence.
 - (2) On failing to observe any Rule, Regulation or By-Law of the Club and being suspended or expelled according to section 14.
 - (3) On being, in the opinion of the Executive Committee, guilty either in or out of the Club of conduct derogatory to the character of a good citizen, or prejudicial to the interests of the Club, or calculated in any manner to impair or affect the enjoyment of the Club by the members thereof and being suspended or expelled according to section 14.
- (c) Should any member's subscription or other money due to the Club remain unpaid for two months, that fact shall be notified to such member, and should the amount due remain unpaid for one month after such notice, the Executive Committee may strike the member's name off the books, when their membership shall cease, unless in consequence of being absent from Western Australia, or for any other sufficient reason, the Executive Committee may think proper to extend the time allowed for payment, or subject to rule to remit the whole or a portion of the sum due. The Executive Committee may post the name of defaulters in the Club Room at their discretion. A member who has had their name struck off the books shall be subject to the provisions of section 14.

14 SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION

- (1) The Executive Committee secretary must give the member written notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion at least 28 days before the Executive Committee meeting at which the proposal is to be considered by the committee.
- (2) The notice given to the member must state —
 - (a) when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) the grounds on which the proposed suspension or expulsion is based; and
 - (c) that the member, or the member's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion;
- (3) At the committee meeting, the committee must —
 - (a) give the member, or the member's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion; and

- (b) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - (c) decide —
 - (i) whether or not to suspend the member's membership and, if the decision is to suspend the membership, the period of suspension; or
 - (ii) whether or not to expel the member from the Club.
- (4) A decision of the committee to suspend the member's membership or to expel the member from the Club takes immediate effect.
- (5) The committee must give the member written notice of the committee's decision, and the reasons for the decision, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the decision is made.
- (6) A member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Club may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Committee's decision under subrule (5), give written notice to the secretary or General Manager requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 23.
- (7) If notice is given under sub-rule (6), the member who gives the notice and the committee are the parties to the mediation.

15. CONSEQUENCES OF SUSPENSION

- (1) During the period a member's membership is suspended, the member —
- (a) loses any rights (including voting rights) arising as a result of membership; and
 - (b) is not entitled to a refund, rebate, relief or credit for membership fees paid, or payable, to the Association.
- (2) When a member's membership is suspended, the General Manager must record in the register of members —
- (a) that the member's membership is suspended; and
 - (b) the date on which the suspension takes effect; and
 - (c) the period of the suspension.
- (3) When the period of the suspension ends, the General Manager must record in the register of members that the member's membership is no longer suspended.

16. RESOLVING DISPUTES – THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- (a) Application of Division

The procedure set out hereunder (the grievance procedure) applies to disputes —

- (a) between members; or
- (b) between one or more members and the Club.

- (b) Parties to attempt to resolve dispute

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party and a written record of such resolution must be lodged with the Executive Committee Secretary.

(c) Commence Procedure

- (1) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the Executive Committee secretary of —
 - (a) the parties to the dispute; and
 - (b) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
- (2) Within 28 days after the secretary is given the notice, an Executive Committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.
- (3) The secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.
- (4) The notice given to each party to the dispute must state —
 - (a) when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute.
- (5) If —
 - (a) the dispute is between one or more members and the Club; and
 - (b) any party to the dispute gives written notice to the secretary stating that the party —
 - (i) does not agree to the dispute being determined by the committee; and
 - (ii) requests the appointment of a mediator under rule 23,the committee must not determine the dispute.

(d) Determination of dispute by committee

- (1) At the committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the committee must —
 - (a) give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - (c) determine the dispute.
- (2) The committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.

- (3) A party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the committee's determination under subrule (1)(c), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 23.
- (4) If notice is given under subrule (3), each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.

17. MEDIATION

1. Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies if written notice has been given to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator —
- (2) If this Division applies, a mediator must be chosen or appointed under rules as specified.

2. Appointment of mediator

- (1) The mediator must be a person chosen —
 - (a) if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a member by agreement between the Member and the Committee; or
 - (b) if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a party to a dispute under rule by agreement between the parties to the dispute.
- (2) If there is no agreement for the purposes of subrule (1)(a) or (b), then, subject to subrules (3) and (4), the committee must appoint the mediator.
- (3) The person appointed as mediator by the committee must be a person who acts as a mediator for another not-for-profit body, such as a community legal centre, if the appointment of a mediator was requested by —
 - (a) a member
 - (b) a party to a dispute is between one or more members and the Club.
- (4) The person appointed as mediator by the committee may be a member or former member of the Club but must not —
 - (a) have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or
 - (b) be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.

3. Mediation process

- (1) The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (2) Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- (3) In conducting the mediation, the mediator must —

- (a) give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
- (4) The mediator cannot determine the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (5) The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (6) The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.

4. Results of Mediation

A mediation may result in:

- resolution of the dispute between the parties whereupon a written record of such resolution must be lodged with the Executive Committee Secretary.
- non-resolution of the dispute, whereupon any decision of the Executive Committee by majority vote is final. Such a decision may involve suspension or expulsion of one or both of the parties.

5. If mediation results in decision to suspend or expel being revoked that revocation does not affect the validity of any decision made at a committee meeting or general meeting during the period of suspension or expulsion.

18. GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) The Annual General Meeting shall be held at the Club House on such day in the month of August in each year as fixed by the Executive Committee, but not before the 7th August.
- (b) Not less than forty-two (42) days' written notice of the holding of the Annual General Meeting shall be given to all Members.
- (c) Notice of Motion of any resolution (other than ordinary business) shall be sent to the General Manager not later than twenty-eight (28) days preceding such Annual General Meeting.
- (d) All notices of motion received by the General Manager shall forthwith be posted on the Club Notice Board and shall there remain until after the meeting. The removal of any notice shall not invalidate such notice but any notice so removed must be replaced with a copy thereof by the General Manager after discovery of removal by the General Manager.

- (e) Accidental omission to send or delay in sending any notice or non-receipt of any notice will not invalidate any meeting, nomination, resolution or election,
- (f) The quorum at a General Meeting shall be no less than 10% of members eligible to vote and in the event of there being no quorum, the Senior Flag Officer present, or if no Flag Officer, the General Manager, shall adjourn the meeting to such time, date and place as may be deemed fit. The quorum at any adjourned meeting shall be the number of members in attendance at the time fixed for such meeting
- (g) Only financial Senior, Life and Country Members shall be entitled to attend and vote at General Meetings, but any accidental breach of this article will not invalidate any election or resolution.
- (h) The majority necessary to carry a resolution in ordinary General Meetings, other than resolutions to alter the Constitution, shall be a simple majority of those present and entitled to vote.

19. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) Upon authority being given by the Executive Committee or by a requisition made and signed by at least 10% of members eligible to attend and vote at general meetings stating the subject or subjects intended to be discussed, the Commodore shall call a Special General Meeting of the Club.

In all cases the subject matter to be discussed shall be set out in the form of a Notice of Motion.

- (b) Such meeting shall be convened by the Commodore for the consideration of such subject or subjects only and not later than 28 days after such authority or requisition (as the case may be), and at least seven days notice in writing of such meeting and the Notice of Motion or the purpose thereof shall be given to each Senior, Life and Country Member.

Accidental omission to notify a member in due time or at all will not render void any such meeting or resolution.

- (c) All Notices of Motion received by the General Manager shall forthwith be posted on the Club Notice Board and shall there remain until after the meeting. The removal of any notice shall not invalidate such notice or any resolution, which may be subsequently carried, but any notice so removed must be replaced with a copy thereof by the General Manager after discovery of its removal by the General Manager.
- (d) The quorum for such meeting shall be at least 10% of members eligible to attend and vote at general meetings. Should insufficient members attend to form a quorum within fifteen minutes of the time notified for such meeting, then the meeting shall lapse.

- (e) The majority necessary to carry a resolution in Special General Meetings, other than resolutions to alter the Constitution, shall be a simple majority of those present and entitled to vote.
- (f) Only financial Senior, Life and Country Members shall be entitled to vote at Special General Meetings, but any accidental breach of this article will not invalidate any election or resolution.

20. OFFICERS

The Officers of the Club (hereinafter referred to as "the Officers"), shall consist of a Commodore, Vice Commodore and two Rear Commodores (hereinafter referred to as "Flag Officers") and an Honorary Secretary, and Honorary Treasurer and Captains (3). All candidates for Flag Officer shall be the owner or part-owner of a boat on the Club Register of sailing or power craft, or be approved for election by the Executive Committee. No member can nominate for Flag Officer unless they have been a financial member for two years and have served on the Executive Committee for one year, not necessarily immediately prior to nomination. The Commodore may serve a maximum of two consecutive years, however, this term may be extended for a further twelve months should no nominations for the position be received.

21. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE & OTHER STANDING COMMITTEES

- (a) The sole management of the Club shall be in the hands of the Executive Committee which shall consist of the Flag Officers, Hon. Secretary, Hon. Treasurer, three (3) Captains and four (4) Committee Members, (hereinafter referred to as "Committee Members") to be elected at the Annual General Meeting, at least five of whom shall be owners or part owners of boats on the Club's register of sailing or power craft. The General Manager shall be a non-voting member of the Executive Committee.
- (b) A quorum for Executive Committee Meetings shall be eight and the quorum for Sub-Committee Meetings shall be the number of appointed Sub-Committee Members divided by two, plus one.
- (c) The Executive Committee may appoint Sub-Committees and may delegate power to act PROVIDED THAT all Sub-Committees shall be required to report and be responsible to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may authorise Junior Members to form a Junior Committee with such powers and limitations as are fixed by the Rules from time to time. The Chairman of each Committee shall be a member of the Executive Committee with the Commodore being an ex-Officio Member of each Committee. Nominations for Sub-committees will be called for prior to Annual General Meetings. The Executive Committee may appoint or co-opt any Club Member to a Sub-Committee.
- (d) The Immediate Past Commodore shall be entitled to sit on the Executive Committee for a period of one year.

22. ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND OTHERS

- (a) A Patron and Vice Patrons, not exceeding five in number, shall be elected at each Annual General Meeting by a show of hands and shall hold office until the next succeeding Annual General Meeting but shall be eligible for re-election. No notice of nomination shall be required.
- (b) The Officers and Committee Members shall be elected in the manner hereafter provided and shall hold office for a period of one year but shall be eligible for re-election provided that no Commodore shall be eligible for re-election if they have held that particular office for two consecutive years immediately prior to such election, unless this term is extended for an additional twelve months, under Clause 17.
- (c) A Returning Officer and Deputy Returning Officers shall be appointed by the Executive Committee and shall remain in Office until successors are appointed. The Returning Officer shall conduct any ballot that may be necessary.
- (d) A Deputy Returning Officer may assist the Returning Officer if the latter so requests and shall take sole charge of the ballot at any stage if the Returning Officer is for any reason unable to continue his/her duties. Neither the Returning Officer or a Deputy Returning Officer shall conduct any ballot in which or which will be conducted at the same time as a ballot in which he/she is a candidate for Election.

The Returning Officer shall, not less than 42 days prior to the Annual General Meeting in each year, advertise in the Club Newsletter notice of the date, time and place at which the election is to be held and giving particulars of the Officers and Committee Members retiring and the vacancies to be filled and calling for nominations for such vacancies.

- (e) Nomination shall be on the Official Club Nomination Form, prescribed by the Executive Committee from time to time, and shall be signed by the Proposer, Secunder and the Candidate accepting his/her Nomination, all of whom must be at that time and at the time of the ballot, financial Senior, Country or Life Members of the Club.
- (f) Such nominations shall be forwarded so as to reach the Returning Officer, or Deputy Returning Officer, conducting the ballot not later than 5.00 pm twenty-eight (28) days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
- (g) The Returning Officer shall place on the Notice Board in the Club premises a list of the names of the persons so nominated with the names of their respective proposers and seconds immediately after receipt thereof and such list shall remain posted until and inclusive of the day of such Annual General Meeting. Failure to post and keep posted any such notification shall not invalidate any nominations.
- (h) If no more than the required number are received for any one position, the member or members so nominated shall be declared elected for the respective term. If more nominations are received than the number of members required then the election should be by ballot as hereinafter provided.

- (i) If after the operation of sub-clause (h) hereof there remains more nominations than vacancies for any position, the Returning Officer shall prepare a ballot paper containing particulars of the positions to be filled and the names of the candidates for each position being those who have not already been deemed to be elected to another position pursuant to sub-clause (h).
- (j) In the event of a ballot the following shall apply: -
 - i Each member wishing to vote shall vote by placing on their ballot paper a mark opposite the name of the candidate of their preference for the respective positions to be filled. The placing of such a mark against the name of a candidate to fill a position for which a ballot is taken shall signify a vote in favour of the election of that person to that position. A ballot paper that does not so comply shall be invalid.
 - ii The General Manager shall on the day of the Annual General Meeting present the Master Roll on which shall appear the name of every financial member who is entitled to vote.
 - iii Voting shall take place at the Club House and shall commence at 6.00 pm on the day of the holding of the Annual General Meeting and conclude at 8.15 pm on the same day.
 - iv The Officer conducting the ballot shall cause the name of every member who is issued with a ballot paper to be marked off the Master Roll.
 - v Each member whose name appears on the Master Roll who is a financial Senior, Life or Country Member shall be entitled to only one ballot paper unless the same be damaged or defaced when the Returning Officer shall be entitled on the return of the original to issue the person with a further ballot paper.
 - vi A member whose name appears on the Master roll and will be unable to attend the meeting for any reason shall be entitled to an absentee vote, on application to the General Manager up to 5.00 pm on the day immediately preceding the day of the Annual General Meeting. The member so applying shall be issued with a ballot paper and an envelope. The ballot paper shall be returned to the General Manager, sealed inside the envelope with the name of the member printed on its face and signature on the reverse.

The General Manager on the issue of an absentee vote, to mark the name of the member off the Master Roll.

All envelopes containing absentee votes together with the Master Roll shall be handed to the Officer conducting the ballot on the day of the Annual General Meeting.
 - vii To determine which candidate or candidates shall fill any position for which a ballot has taken place, the Officer conducting the ballot shall for each candidate aggregate the number of votes in favour of that candidate's election to that position.

The Candidate with the highest aggregate of votes is elected to the position. In the case of a ballot for more than one position of Committee Member, the Candidate with the highest aggregate of votes is elected to the first position, the candidate with the next highest aggregate of votes is elected to the second position, and so on until all balloted vacancies are filled.

viii The order of election shall be: -

COMMODORE

VICE COMMODORE

REAR COMMODORE

- (2) (SAILING & MOORING & STORAGE)
